What to Where

We know seniors think a lot about what to wear for their senior portraits, but consider also where you will have your pictures taken. Here are some of our faves:

URBAN

How about a back alley with a fire escape, an old warehouse with interesting metalwork or worn windows? Graffiti, brick with peeling paint, or old signage can all serve as fantastic backdrops. If you are an adventurous type who likes to explore, this setting can add striking contrast to seniors dressed up in something chic.

NATURAL

Natural settings are always popular because outdoor light is so flattering and easy to work with. Most public parks work well for this type of session, or anywhere with trees, long paths, open grassy spaces, or ponds and fencing. If you like to be active and moving, a natural setting will provide the most freedom.

STUDIO

Seniors who like a controlled setting or clean lines--and don't want to worry about the elements or other contingencies--might prefer the simplicity of the studio. Nemes Creative Photography & Design offers a variety of backdrops, props, and lighting to complement any style.

CUSTOM

What are your passions? Channel that into a customized shoot somewhere you love. The barre at a dance studio? The golf course? With your sports gear on the field? The possibilities are endless!
